WORLD SOCCER ORGY PART I

PRODUCTION: Eurocreme Platinum
DIRECTED BY: Vlado Iresch
RUNTIME: 110 mins

With the planet still buzzing from World Cup mania, you'd think we'd have had it with boys in football shorts showing off their tackle. Of course not. Bring 'em on!

This latest release from the Eurocreme stable sees photographers being sent undercover to uncover everything about the beautiful game. And boy do they get snap happy!

Shot in the Czech Republic the boys are an international mix, ranging from greedy twink bottoms to muscle-top studs. The scenes are interspersed with hilarious Footballer's Wives-style tabloid headlines, which keeps it all tongue in cheek.

The first scene follows a training session – a vigorous spit roast that ends in some expert cum guzzling (something that happens a lot in this flick). Up in the mountains a striker takes a tumble while training, however, this doesn't stop him taking his blond trainer's cock, despite the pulled muscle!

A simple rub down ends in a pumping oiled-up three-way on the massage table. Bet Wayne Rooney doesn't get this kind of physiotherapy! Our two paparazzi celebrate their scoops by sucking, rimming and fucking each other 'til they gush like geysers. Meanwhile the French team is also celebrating in the back of the bus, where one young defender does little to stop two huge cocks going into his goal – slurping cum with gusto. In the German changing room a twink with a Mohican (how Beckham can you be?) takes six cocks in succession.

If fit lads in footie kit gets you dribbling, this film is a must.

And Soccer Boy Orgy part 2 is out now – the changing room scene has over two dozen guys in it!
