I suppose if you are Vivid Video and you have a university it should be called Vivid U!

We have to talk about the initiation. All those young studs wanting to pledge a frat house or a frat brother. It's an exciting time of your life, that first semester of college. It is where everything is "grown-up." You are finally old enough to drink beer and suck cock or get it up the ass and like it. Kurt Stefano is definitely the star of the film. His asshole is on the screen more often than anyone else's body part. I think the entire fraternity gets to lick his ass at one time or another.

The name TANNER REEVES pops up on the box and his cock pops up in his room. Tanner Reeves has been absent for a very long time due to an unfortunate accident he had a few years ago. Nice to see him back and in such great shape. That cock obviously never got damaged. And her certainly manages to get it off.

There is a great bunch of guys being initiated and it becomes the greatest part of the film. Orgy Extraordinaire is what I call it and in a stairwell yet. There is a time when you wonder where in hell the camera was hiding because all of the action is so Vivid-ly captured. And yes, the pun was intended. The editing makes it real and not choppy even though you know it took hours and hours to film.

With my heart pumping and my hand pumping every minute Stefano was on the screen it was interesting to know that this ole reviewer could still get so stimulated. I think it was the new blond Jim Steel found for us all. You know they are all freshmen at heart and they take turns being a top and a bottom because during the first year at college who knows whether they are a bottom or a top. Hell, when I was a freshmen I thought it was a Gershwin song. How little we do know when in college the first year. But that's what this movie is all about. For you older guys this will bring back a lot of memories. For you younger guys you will get a few lessons from the pros and maybe some ideas. Who knows. But the final orgy (which is long enough to satisfy the softest cock and the hardest cock) is the main part of the movie and will never get fast forwarded on the vcr machine.
