PRESSURE. ALL MALE. HARD-CORE. WELL WRITTEN.

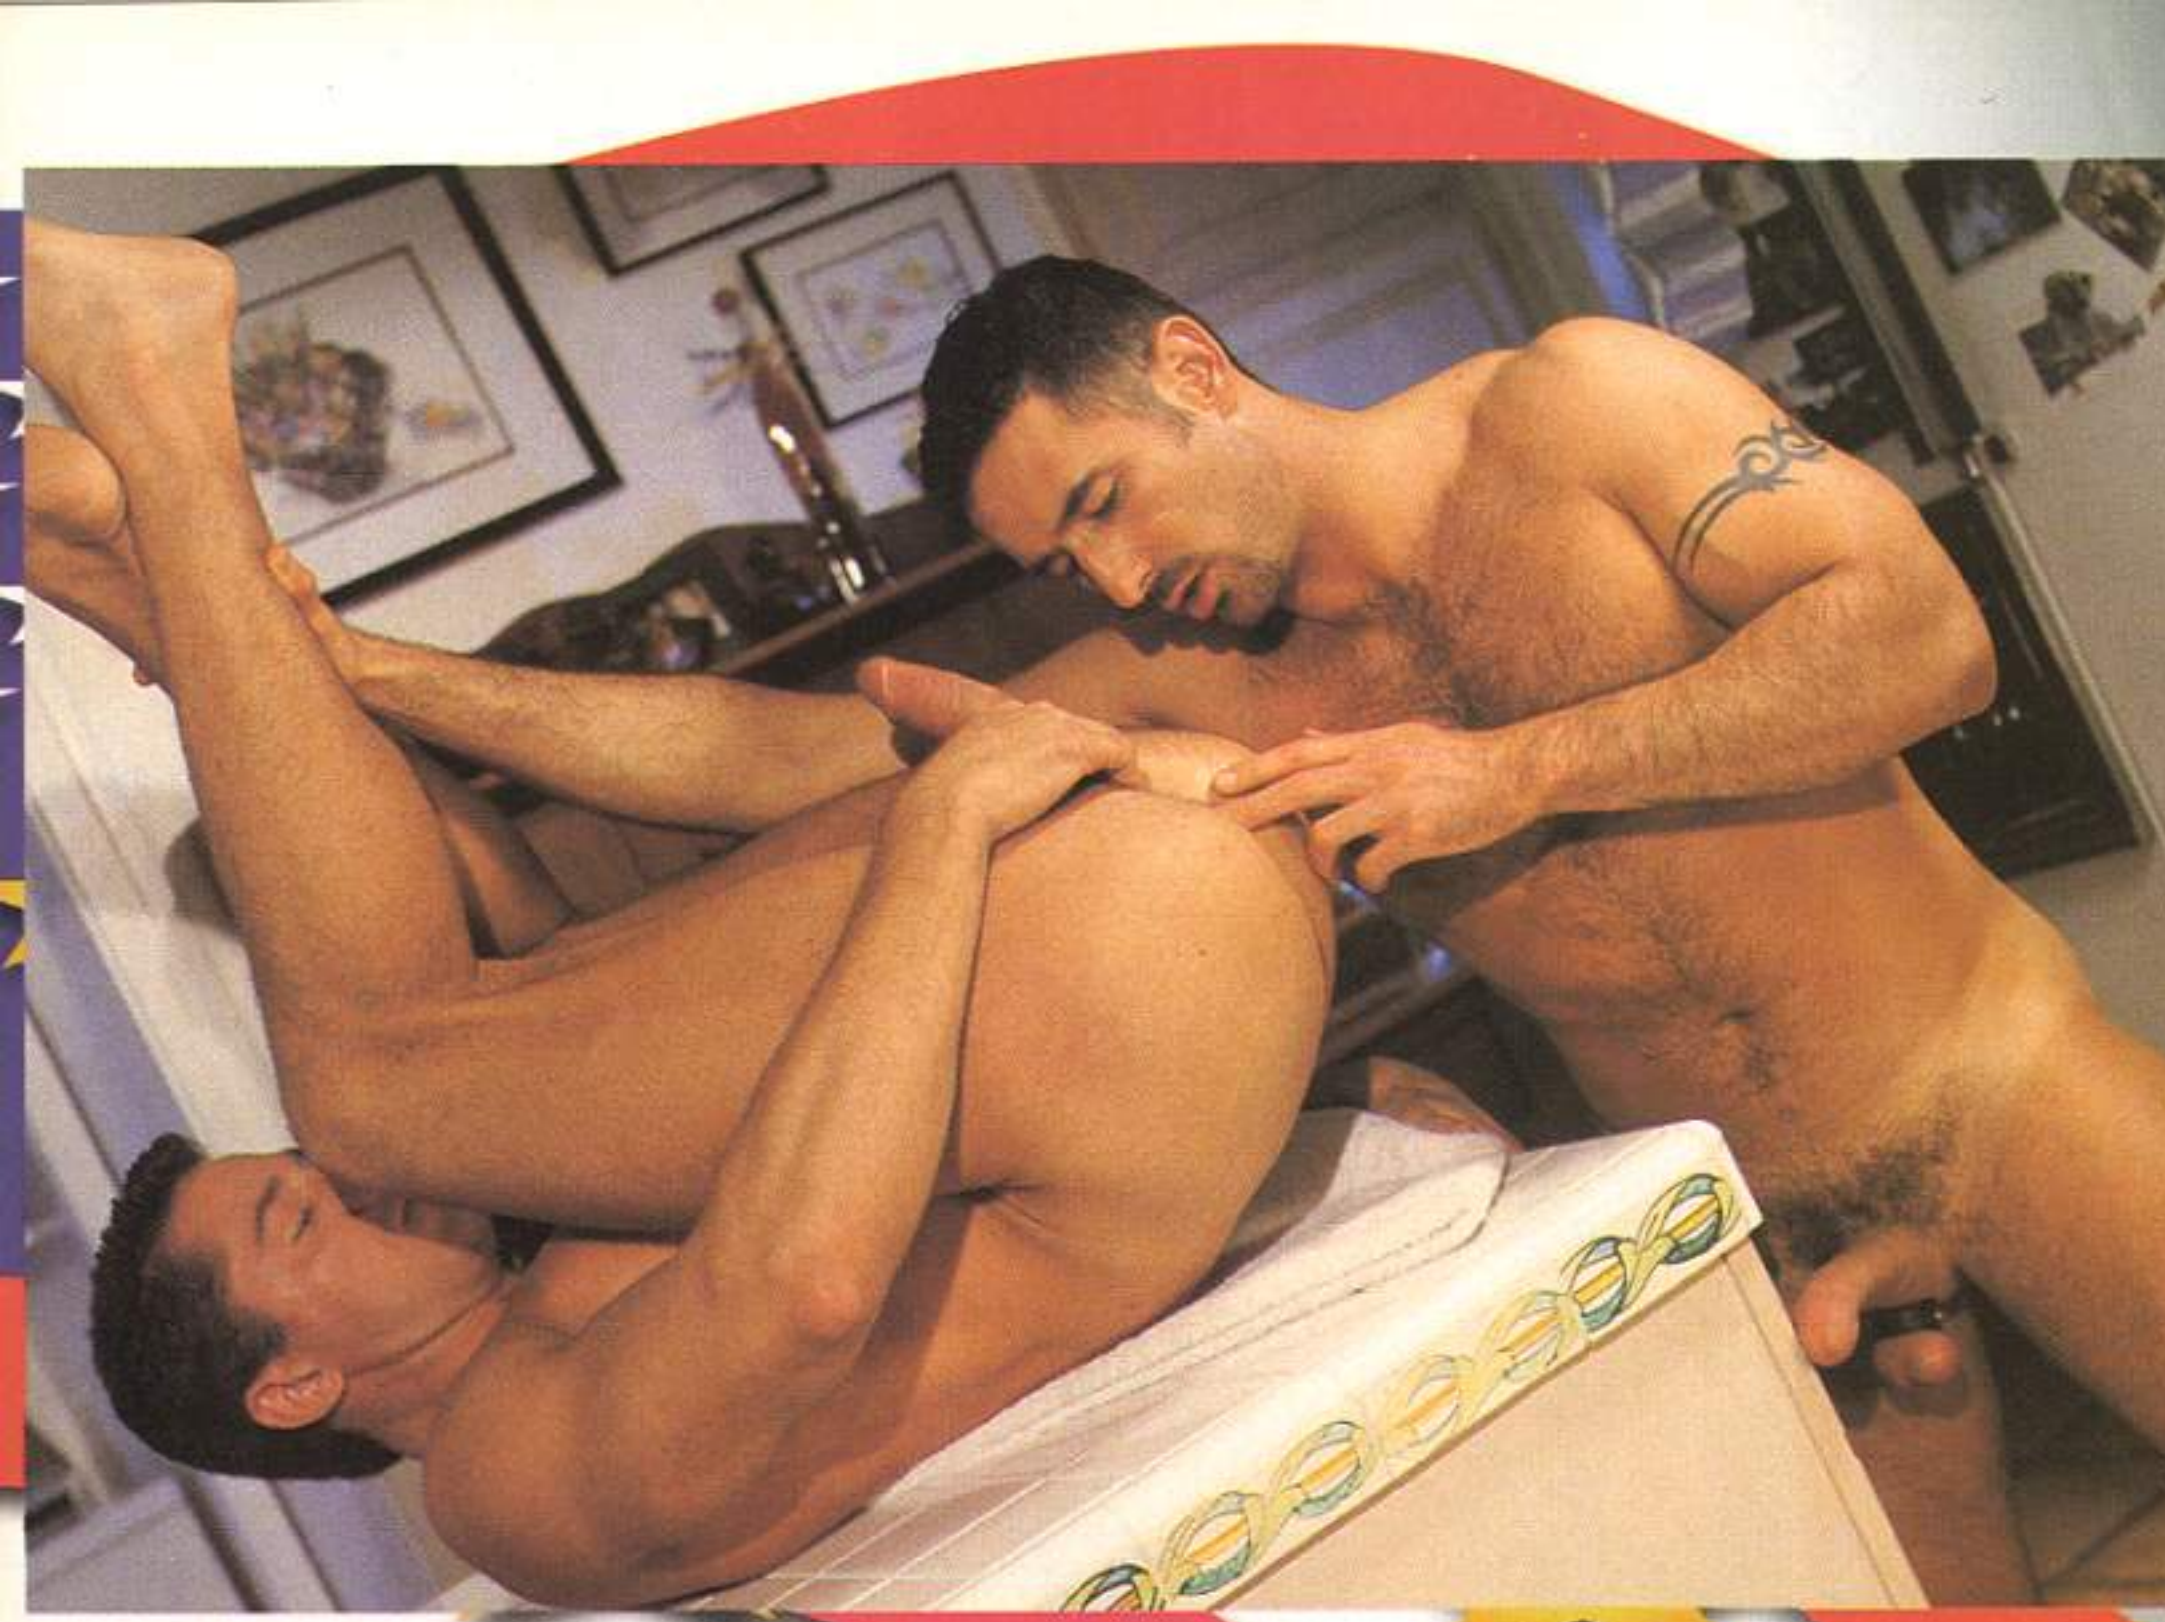
The kind of pressure that Handsome Man Cliff Parker puts into the happy relationship of Drew Andrews and Tony Zerega.

The kind of pressure Cliff Parker puts into your pants when he's viewed having handsome man sex.

This video has both kinds!

I read everything on the package and printed it above. So often what you see on the box is not what you get when you turn on the movie. Not here. CLIFF PARKER is reason enough to buy this video from the opening scene to the last bitter end. That is if you get that far before losing your load to a sofa towel, bedside kleenex, recliner chair trick towel. Yup! It's a get out the lube kind of movie. I think Catalina knew they had something spectacular in Cliff Parker and it didn't matter who the co-stars were.



However, they gathered a great line-up of hunks and the entire movie reflects expert casting, dynamic visuals, pleasant background music and a story that didn't take your mind of the action, as sometimes happens.

The opening with Cliff alone in his bedroom smelling a shirt that obviously belonged to someone else got me going. There are many solo performances to the credit of this reviewer fast forwarding but in the case of Cliff Parker alone...I wanted to slow it down. The man has such sex appeal I have no words to describe it. You just have to take your cock in your hand and watch him.

As if you aren't turned on enough with Cliff you get into his mind and in comes Drew Andrews, a man who probably could turn on a piece of seaweed. Drew is in bed with his lover, Tony Zerega. Another hunk to tease the cum out of you. It just goes on and on and on with one hot scene after the other and never lets up. No way could you watch the entire movie without getting off. In fact you will have to take it in stages I guess. Do what you want with it but get it because it is a Catalina Supervideo.
